

"Flora"

A discreet jewel, the Delance watch « Flora » is all about simplicity and elegance. It is a masterpiece of a miniature sculpture created by a truly inspired artist. To give this marvel a unique touch, an artist-specialist in miniature painting decorated the rose mother-of-pearl face with two lilies, which seem to tenderly gaze at one another. The final touch of beauty is a ruby set at six o'clock, as well as the lively pink leather bracelet which completes this precious time piece.

The first name Flora – From the Latin flos, floris, "the flower."

Flora is the name of the Roman goddess of all growing things. She was the wife of Zepher, the god of the West wind. Each year, the feast days called the Floralties were celebrated in her honour in Rome, between April 28 and May 3. Very early on, her name became a given name and quickly spread throughout the West.
